NOTE: The Ohechi runs along the mountainous coast of the Kaikysè coastline through smaller villages. Once away from the train line there is limited to no public transport. Please plan accordingly.

Signs
Signage along the Ohechi route is available with some sections that only have Japanese sign, especially in the areas that link trailheads to train stations through dotted areas. Please be aware of your location and refer to maps while walking.